Course Overview

ACEP Anytime is an internet enduring activity that will take approximately 250 hours to complete in its entirety. To receive CME, you must:

1. Read and agree to all activity information on this page.
2. Participate in the educational content, as applicable, to include:
    1. Listening to each lecture in its entirety,
    2. Reading each article in its entirety,
    3. Reviewing all references,
3. Complete activity evaluation.
4. Attest to completing the activity according to the steps referenced above.

This activity is designed for emergency physicians, emergency nurses, nurse practitioners, residents, medical students, physician assistants, emergency department medical directors, hospital administrators, EMTs/paramedics, and other health care providers engaged in the practice of emergency medicine.

This activity was released on January 31, 2024, and the accreditation period expires on December 31, 2024.

Objectives

After completing this activity, learners should be able to apply the latest advances in the diagnosis, treatment, clinical skills, and practice management innovations necessary for the practice of emergency medicine.

Accreditation Information

The American College of Emergency Physicians is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The American College of Emergency Physicians designates this enduring material for a maximum of 250 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Approved by the American College of Emergency Physicians for a maximum of 250 hours of ACEP Category I credit.

Disclosure of Financial Relationships

In accordance with the ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, all relevant financial relationships, and the absence of relevant financial relationships for all individuals with control of content must be disclosed to learners before they engage with the accredited education and in a format that can be verified at the time of accreditation.

Relationships disclosed or lack of relationships with ineligible companies are listed within each activity. The ACEP staff and reviewers report no relationships with ineligible companies.

Disclosure of Commercial Support

In accordance with the Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education, the source of all support from ineligible companies as defined by the ACCME (including "in-kind" support) must also be disclosed to learners prior to engaging with accredited content.

- Any commercial support received is listed within each activity

CME Certificates

To access CME certificates:
- Log in to acep.org/cmetracker using your ACEP web credentials.
- Locate the activity.
- Enter credit hours being claimed commensurate with your participation.
- Click on add to transcript.
- You will be given the option to download or print your certificate.

Questions or Comments

For questions related to your ACEP web credentials or CME certificate access, please contact: membership@acep.org.

For questions, concerns, or suggestions about course design, please contact: eCME@acep.org.

Accredited Provider Information

American College of Emergency Physicians
PO Box 619911
Dallas, TX 75261-9911
cmecoordinator@acep.org

Hardware and Software Requirements
ACEP Privacy Policy and Copyright Notice
Terms of Service

To contact ACEP, call 800-798-1822, or 972-550-0911, or write to PO Box 619911, Dallas, TX 75261-9911. Your comments and suggestions are always welcome.